Small Commercial Update

Velocity Knowledge Center

The Velocity Knowledge Center is your new resource center for Velocity product and system information. The Knowledge Center is replacing the Velocity Risk University with a new redesigned experience.

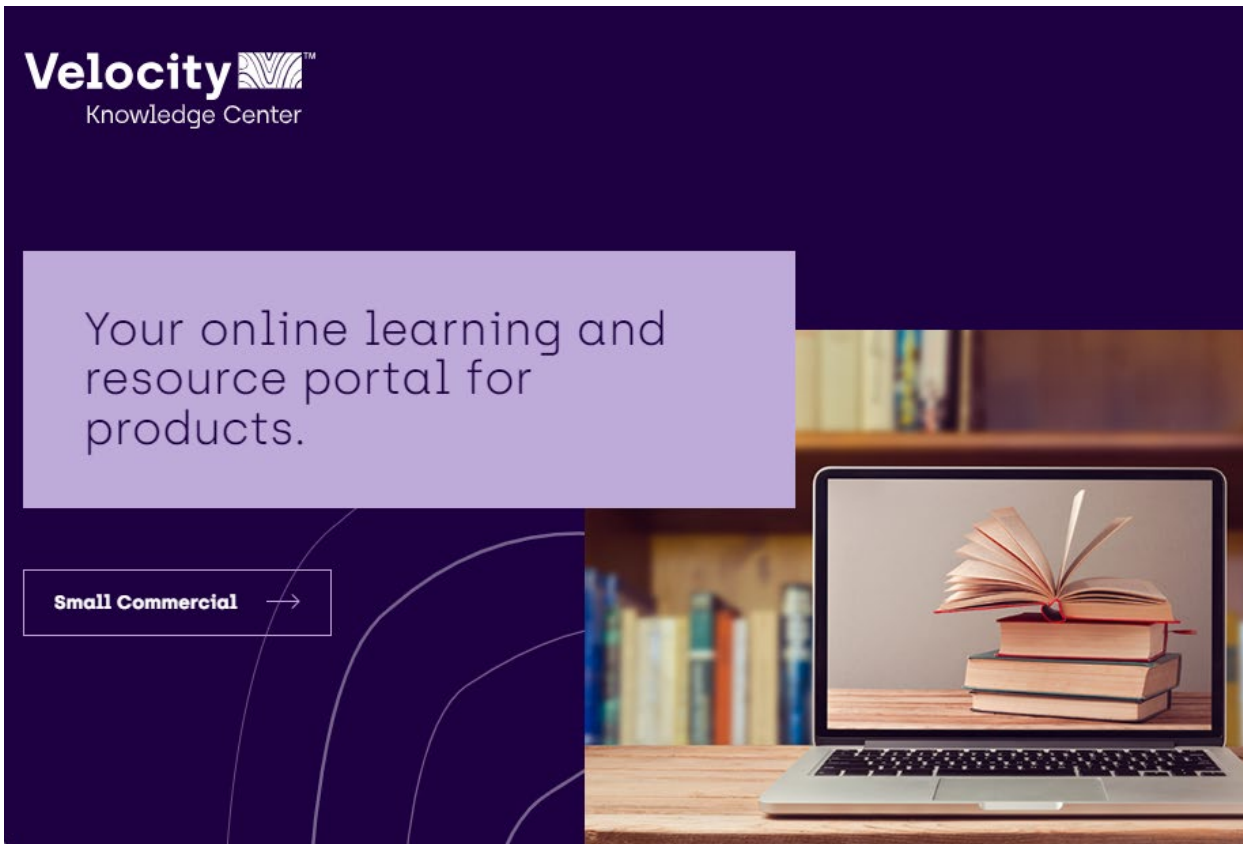

Access the Knowledge Center via the my.velocityrisk.com portal using the new Knowledge Center link.

The Knowledge Center home page has a more modern look. Click Small Commercial to access the available resources. There is also a new Support button with contact information and other helpful links.

Can't remember how to process a renewal in our new system or if that risk will meet our underwriting guidelines? The new Training page has been redesigned to be more intuitive to your needs. Resources about Velocity's products and system training is available in a faster, more efficient way including a new Featured section highlighting new and noteworthy items and a new layout allowing better access to more items on the page.

Navigate to any of the other pages directly (Forms Library, Marketing Documents, and Bulletins) from the top menu.
